OLD-FASHIONED DEPENDABILITY

Doubleday has been publishing books for children since A Book of Nursery Rhymes appeared on the firm's first list in 1897. That children's books are durable is proved by the fact that many of the books published in the early days are listed in the 1961 catalogue: Penrod (1914), The Bojabi Tree and Fall's ABC Book (1923), Poppy Seed Cakes and Tales of Silver Lands (1924), to name a few.

The oldest book in the current catalogue, Kipling's Just So Stories, was suggested by Nelson Doubleday, then eleven years old. He read How the Whale Got His Tiny Throat in St. Nicholas magazine and told his father, F. N. Doubleday, founder of the firm, that "Uncle Rud" should write a book explaining how the leopard got his spots, how the elephant got his trunk and other mysteries. Mr. Doubleday advised his son to write to Kipling. Nelson, who later became president of the firm, insisted that since it was his idea he should receive a share of the royalties. His father agreed to pay 1c a copy. Kipling wrote the book, Doubleday published it in 1902 and for almost half a century Nelson collected 1c on every volume sold.

But Doubleday is now looking to the future with a new children's book department, Doubleday Books for Young Readers. Margaret Lesser is editor in chief of the new department; William Hall is executive editor.

New Titles:

LITTLE BLACK, A PONY

By WALTER FARLEY. Illustrated by James Schucker. In Walter Farley's first Beginner Book, he uses only 173 words to tell of a little pony who wishes he were big. Grade reading level 1.8.

LOOK OUT FOR PIRATES!

By IRIS VINTON. Illustrated by H. B. Vestal. Designed for high interest, low reading level, this looks like a more grown-up book, but actually has only 177 different words. Grade reading level 2.1.

MORE RIDDLES

By BENNETT CERF. Illustrated by Roy McKie. Funny riddles for children who want to read all by themselves. 185 different words. Grade reading level 2.3.

A FISH OUT OF WATER

By HELEN PALMER. Illustrated by P. D. Eastman. A boy fed his fish too much — and the fish grew and grew. The story grows funnier right along with him. 175-word vocabulary. Grade reading level 1.8.
